Dear Community Member,

Public Hearing Notice

Discretionary Use Development Permit – Intensive Livestock Operation Expansion

Rose Valley Hutterian Brethren has submitted a discretionary use development permit application to the Rural Municipality of Excel No. 71 for an increase in hog and poultry operations at SE 07-07-26-W2.

The colony is seeking approval for an increase of 714 AU of poultry, from 125 AU to 839 AU. An increase of 236 AU of hogs, from 547 AU to 783 AU. The hog and poultry operations will utilize existing infrastructure and earthen manure storage.

The colony has received approval and a Permit from the Ministry of Agriculture for their storage and management of the waste for this increase of AU in their Intensive Livestock Operation.

The R.M. of Excel No. 71's Zoning Bylaw No. 20-13 requires a public hearing to be held for discretionary use development permit applications as part of council's consideration of the application. This is an opportunity for affected landowners to provide written comments on the proposal.

A public hearing is scheduled for this discretionary use development permit application on:
